Proposed itinerary

Day 1: Lhasa arrival [3650m]

[–, –, D]

Welcome to Lhasa! Your English-speaking Tibetan guide and driver will warmly welcome you and accompany you to your hotel. Lhasa is one of the highest cities in the world. We understand that the high altitude of Tibet can be challenging for some, so we recommend taking your time to acclimate. Rest assured, we will provide all the necessary support to ensure your well-being. Remember to drink plenty of water and take a good rest to minimise any altitude sickness symptoms. Get ready to embark on a once-in-a-lifetime adventure! Overnight in Lhasa.

Day 2: Lhasa sightseeing

[B, –, –]

At the assigned time, we'll begin our tour by visiting the iconic Potala Palace. Built in the 17th century by the fifth Dalai Lama, this magnificent palace offers breathtaking views of the entire city and is home to the private quarters of the Dalai Lama, numerous grand state rooms, and chapels. Afterward, we'll visit the revered Jokhang Temple, founded in the 7th century by Songtsen Gampo, which is considered the most sacred monastery in Tibet. Immerse yourself in the rich cultural heritage of this magical land: take a stroll through the vibrant Barkhor old quarter and follow pilgrims from all over the Tibetan plateau on a kora around the Jokhang Temple. Kora is a term used in Tibetan Buddhism that refers to the practice of circumambulating around a sacred site, such as a temple, stupa or mountain, as a way of showing devotion and accumulating merit. The practice involves walking clockwise around the site, often while reciting mantras, prayers or other sacred texts. It is also believed to bring good fortune and blessings to those who undertake it. Overnight in Lhasa.

Day 3: Lhasa sightseeing

[B, –, –]

Today we'll visit Drepung and Sera monasteries. After breakfast, we'll venture to the outskirts of Lhasa to witness the grandeur of the Drepung Monastery, the largest in Tibet, which once housed 7000 monks. Along with the monasteries of Ganden and Sera, Drepung is one of the three great centers of Tibetan Buddhist education in the Gelugpa school, also known as the Yellow Hat Sect. Founded in the 15th century, it was the former residence of the Dalai Lama before the construction of the majestic Potala Palace. In the afternoon, you'll be mesmerised by the famous debates of the Sera Monastery, where the monks engage with vibrant energy in intellectual discourse and challenge each other's understanding of Buddhist philosophy. It's a truly awe-inspiring experience not to be missed! Overnight in Lhasa.

Day 4: Lhasa – Gyantse [280Km, 3980m]

[B, -, -]

Let the adventure begin! We'll start driving South-West toward the Tsang region, ascending the Kampa-la Pass [4797m], where you'll witness the stunning Mt. Noi jin Kangsang [7206m] and the breathtaking turquoise waters of holy lake Yamdrok-Tso. An unreal sight that will leave you spellbound all along the way to the Karo-la Pass [5050m], where you'll marvel at the glacier that majestically hugs the roadside. If the group's timing allows, you'll have the chance to walk to Jayang-tso Lake and see the Kyangyong Glacier. Our last stop of the day will be at Ralung Monastery, founded in the late 12th century, nestled in a remote and serene area surrounded by stunning mountain landscapes. Although less visited than other major monasteries in Tibet, it holds great importance in Tibetan Buddhism, particularly for the Drukpa Kagyu lineage in Bhutan. Finally, we'll arrive in the charming town of Gyantse before dinner time. Overnight in Gyantse.

Day 5: Gyantse – Sakya [250Km, 4320m]

[B, -, -]

Our first visit today will be to the Kumbum Stupa inside the Pelkor Chode Monastery, renowned for its exquisite Tibetan art paintings. From the top of the Kumbum, you'll also be treated to a magnificent view of the majestic Gyantse Dzong fortress overlooking the valley. Back to the Friendship Highway, we'll take you to the stunning Sakya Monastery, the principal seat of the Sakyapa Sect founded in 1073 and one of the four major Schools of Tibetan Buddhism. Its powerful abbots governed Tibet during the whole of the 13th century until they were eclipsed by the rise of the Gelugpa Sect. With its unique Mongolian architecture, this monastery stands out from any other you've seen before. The lucky ones may get to witness the sunset from atop the monastery walls, accompanied by the hypnotising sound of the monks playing their dungcheng, a traditional long Tibetan horn. Overnight in Sakya. Important: In case there is any local restriction the day you arrive to Sakya, we will continue our journey and stay overnight in Lhatse (55Km).

Day 6: Sakya – Rongbuk (Mt. Everest) [230Km, 5000m]

[B, -, -]

Another thrilling day! We'll reach one of the major highlights of our trip, near Mt. Everest North Base Camp [5200m]. The journey to Rongbuk involves crossing the high passes of Dong-la [4800m] and Gawu-la [5150m]. The Dong-la Pass gives the opportunity to see the little-known eastern face of Everest (Kangshung) and the Himalayas for the first time; and from the top of the Gawu-la you'll enjoy amazing views of several peaks like Makalu, Lhotse, Cho Oyu, and Mount Everest. The Rongbuk Monastery is located at the foot of the Everest, and the highest monastery in the world. You'll spend the night at the tourist camp site located a few Kilometres from the real EBC used by climbing expeditions, where you'll have direct views of Mt. Everest (Qomolangma). Since 2018 tourists are not allowed to visit the EBC due to environmental protection and now there is a eco-bus shuttle to access Rongbuk. Overnight at simple guesthouse tent (dorm bed without bathroom). Upgrade to private room available (contact us for further details before booking).

Day 7: Rongbuk – Shigatse [334Km, 3840m]

[B, -, -]

Today begins the end of your Tibetan journey through the most sacred Buddhist monasteries and mightiest mountains on earth. For those eager to embrace an early start, witness the sunrise with breathtaking views of the Everest peak on the horizon [8848m]. Following breakfast, we visit Rongbuk Monastery, offering a final gaze at Mt. Everest's North Face, and then drive back to Shigatse to enjoy a nice shower, sleep in a comfortable bed. And if you have some free time, don't forget to do the Kora around the Tashilhunpo monastery before sunset to soak up the stunning panorama of the valley and the impressive Dzong (fortress). Overnight in Shigatse.

Day 8: Shigatse – Lhasa [342Km, 3650m]

[B, -, -]

Our final day of our Tibetan traverse takes us northeast toward the non-touristy, nomadic Yangpachen Valley, where you can experience that the nomadic way of life still thrives. In the morning, as soon as it opens, we'll visit Tashilhunpo Monastery, built in the 15th century by the first Dalai Lama and currently the seat of the Panchen Lama. Overnight in Lhasa.

Day 9: Tibet departure

[B, -, -]

Enjoy your last hours in Tibet exploring Lhasa on your own until your guide and driver meet you at the hotel to transfer you to the airport. End of our services.
